

Mahatma Gandhi Government Engineering College Kotla Jeori

Name: Sahil Thakur

Batch: 2016-20

Branch: Civil Engineering

College: Mahatma Gandhi Government Engineering College
Kotla (Jehri)

Sahil Thakur began his academic journey at Mahatma Gandhi Government Engineering College, Kotla (Jehri), Rampur, Himachal Pradesh. From August 2016 to May 2020, he pursued his Bachelor of Technology in Civil Engineering, demonstrating both discipline and excellence by maintaining an impressive CGPA of 8+. His consistent academic performance highlighted his commitment to personal growth and learning.

Discovering a Passion for Finance

While excelling in his engineering studies, Sahil developed a profound interest in the finance and banking sector. His curiosity about financial systems and their role in the economy motivated him to explore career opportunities beyond the conventional engineering domain. This dual focus on academics and finance shaped his ambitions and defined his career trajectory.

A Remarkable Career Transition

Post-graduation, Sahil channeled his determination and focus to prepare for competitive banking examinations. Through hard work and strategic preparation, he successfully cracked the central banking sector examination, a significant achievement that marked the beginning of a promising career. Today, he serves as an Assistant Manager at the State Bank of India, one of India's leading financial institutions.

An Inspiration for Aspirants

Sahil Thakur's journey exemplifies the power of versatility and determination. His ability to transition from engineering to banking reflects his adaptability, resilience, and pursuit of passion. As an Assistant Manager at the State Bank of India, he continues to make a meaningful contribution to the financial sector. His story inspires countless individuals to follow their passions and embrace change for a brighter future.